as otherwise provided in $\S 10.251$ through 10.257.

- (c) Entered. The term "entered" means entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, in the customs territory of the United States.
- (d) Wholly the growth, product, or manufacture of a beneficiary country. The expression "wholly the growth, product, or manufacture of a beneficiary country" has the same meaning as that set forth in §10.191(b)(3) of this part.

§ 10.203 Eligibility criteria in general.

An article classifiable under a subheading of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States for which a rate of duty of "Free" appears in the "Special" subcolumn followed by the symbol "J" or "J*" in parentheses is eligible for duty-free treatment, and will be accorded such treatment, if each of the following requirements is met:

- (a) Imported directly. The article is imported directly from a beneficiary country as provided in §10.204.
- (b) Country of origin criteria. The article complies with the country of origin criteria set forth in §10.205.
- (c) Value content requirement. The article complies with the value content requirement set forth in §10.206.
- (d) Filing of claim and submission of supporting documentation. The claim for duty-free treatment is filed, and any required documentation in support of the claim is submitted, in accordance with the procedures set forth in §10.207.

§ 10.204 Imported directly.

In order to be eligible for duty-free treatment under the ATPA, an article shall be imported directly from a beneficiary country into the customs territory of the United States. For purposes of this requirement, the words "imported directly" mean:

- (a) Direct shipment from any beneficiary country to the United States without passing through the territory of any non-beneficiary country; or
- (b) If shipment from any beneficiary country to the United States was through the territory of a non-beneficiary country, the articles in the shipment did not enter into the commerce of the non-beneficiary country while en route to the United States, and the invoices, bills of lading, and other shipping documents show the United States as the final destination; or

- (c) If shipment from any beneficiary country to the United States was through the territory of a non-beneficiary country and the invoices and other documents do not show the United States as the final destination, then the articles in the shipment, upon arrival in the United States, are imported directly only if they:
- (1) Remained under the control of the customs authority in the intermediate country:
- (2) Did not enter into the commerce of the intermediate country except for the purpose of sale other than at retail, and the articles are imported into the United States as a result of the original commercial transaction between the importer and the producer or the latter's sales agent; and
- (3) Were not subjected to operations in the intermediate country other than loading and unloading, and other activities necessary to preserve the articles in good condition.

§ 10.205 Country of origin criteria.

- (a) General. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section, an article may be eligible for duty-free treatment under the ATPA if the article is either:
- (1) Wholly the growth, product, or manufacture of a beneficiary country; or
- (2) A new or different article of commerce which has been grown, produced, or manufactured in a beneficiary country.
- (b) Exceptions. No article shall be eligible for duty-free treatment under the ATPA by virtue of having merely undergone simple (as opposed to complex or meaningful) combining or packaging operations, or mere dilution with water or mere dilution with another substance that does not materially alter the characteristics of the article. The principles and examples set forth in §10.195(a)(2) of this part shall apply equally for purposes of this paragraph.
